HOLIDAY CATALOG

dear friends,

Page numbers refer to the holiday catalog unless otherwise noted. The abbreviation AC refers to the 2012-2013 annual catalog.

I love life and I get especially excited about the holidays. There's something special about this time of year . . . the festive feeling, the extra opportunities to gather with loved ones, the music, the giving. I love everything about it!

An extra reason to be excited this year is our holiday catalog, which is bigger than ever before. And another first? We're bundling coordinating products together for a discount!

Through the years we've built a reputation for coordinating products—we make it easy and fun to create by designing stamps, ink, paper, and accessories that work together wonderfully. And now you can choose from several different bundles and save money at the same time!

It seems like creation and the holidays go hand in hand. Making cards, gifts, scrapbook pages, invitations, home décor . . . the list is endless. We know you'll find plenty of things to help with your holiday creative needs this year in our holiday catalog.

I wish you the happiest of holidays!

Shelli Shelli Gardner,
Cofounder and CEO
