CARD TUTORIAL:

- Cut, score, and fold the Basic White gate fold card base.
- Gently score the Sweet Sorbet bottom panel layer at 5-1/2". (This paper is thinner than cardstock and may get cut if too much pressure is used when scoring.)
- Once scored, fold the Sweet Sorbet bottom panel layer in half. One half will be 1/8" longer. The slightly shorter side will be adhered to the gate fold. The longer side allows the panel room to open and close easily.
- With the Sweet Sorbet bottom panel layer folded with a bottom crease, adhere the shorter half to the middle section of the open Basic White card base (Step 1). The edge of the panel layer should be flush along the top of the card base. Once adhered, the Sweet Sorbet panel will open downward.
- Gently score and fold the Parakeet Party top panel layer at 5-1/2". One half will be 1/8" longer. The slightly shorter side will be adhered over the Sweet Sorbet card base panel.
- With the Parakeet Party top panel layer folded with a top crease, adhere the shorter half to the middle section of the open card base (Step 2). Align the Parakeet Party crease slightly above the top edge of the card base. Once adhered, the Parakeet Party panel will open upward.
- Stamp a goose and sentiment using Memento Black at the bottom of the Basic White inside image layer as pictured. Then, use Stampin' Blends to color the goose.
- With all card panels open, center and adhere the stamped inside image layer to the Parakeet Party card base.
- Stamp the fist-bumping geese using Memento Black on the Basic White gate fold image layer. Then, use Stampin' Blends to color the geese.
- Center and adhere the colored image, Lemon Lolly and Sweet Sorbet gate fold layers.

- Adhere the three (3) Parakeet Party strips behind the gate fold layers.
- Cut the layered image in half, where the geese's fists touch.
- With the top and bottom panels open, center and adhere the left goose layers to the left panel of the closed gate fold. Be careful to keep the inner edge of the image layer flush with the gate fold opening. Then, repeat with the right goose on the right gate fold panel.
- With the gate fold and Sweet Sorbet panel layer closed, adhere the Parakeet Party strip across the front of the Sweet Sorbet panel.
- On Basic White scrap, stamp "It's Your Birthday" and the goose with the party hat.
- Stamp the banner goose using Memento Black on the Basic White middle image layer.
- Color the banner goose and the party hat of the other goose.
- Use scissors to cut out the colored party hat. Cut each word of the sentiment into separate pieces. Then, adhere the words to the colored banner and the party hat to the goose on the image layer.
- Center and adhere the image layer to the front of the Sweet Sorbet layer as pictured.
- With all the card panels closed, adhere the Sweet Sorbet strip across the front of the Parakeet Party panel. Be careful not to apply adhesive to the ends of the strip, otherwise this will glue the top panel closed.
- Use Memento Black to stamp the goose and a sentiment on the Basic White front image layer. Then, color with Stampin' Blends.
- Use Stampin' Dimensionals to adhere the stamped image and the Basic White layer to the card front as pictured.
- Embellish the card with 2022-2024 In Color Pearls.
